

Copa di Vino Founder James Martin & US Congressman Greg Walden

The pair are featured here inside the Sunshine Mill, home of Copa di Vino, Wine by the Glass. This historic property sits near the end of the Oregon Trail and has been a key fixture in The Dalles panorama for over a century. It has well-preserved unique mechanical power system including a Thomas Edison designed main power generator that utilized water power off one of the first dam's on the nearby Columbia River.